

The Art of Brilliant Marking and Feedback

Monday 15th January 2018, 1pm – 3:45pm, Ashmount School

The whole point of teaching children stuff is so they learn it and can use it and/or the skills they develop when learning later in life.

For us, the holy grail of teaching is when you bump into a student twenty years later and they tell you that they have done just that.

However, the big issue for teachers is to make sure that learning is taking place and to help the children take the right path to even more. This course will help you do just that.

Who should attend?

This course is suitable for teachers from Key Stage 2 to Key Stage 4.

Please bring an exemplar of your marking

Course content

- The big picture
- Making an impact? Strategies that work and can be used the next day
- The bits that make a difference?
- Written, oral and non-verbal communication
- Tracking, targeting and intervention
- Praise and how to get the most out of it
- The role of the learner, teacher and parent

Objectives

Delegates will:

- gain a greater insight into what great marking and feedback is
- gain a range of practical measures you can use
- take away strategies you can embed in your classroom, department or school
- take a “Marking Policy” back to their schools for discussion with colleagues
