

Joining or Forming a Multi-Academy Trust

LEAD | CHALLENGE | IMPROVE

This workshop is facilitated by Cathy Brown who is Head of Governance at The Mead Educational Trust. Cathy has nearly 20 years' experience as a school governor and chair of governors in both maintained schools and academies, at primary and secondary levels. She supports chairs of governors as a National Leader of Governance and is an experienced trainer for governors and clerks. Cathy has extensive experience of academy conversion and how MATs work through her role in the Trust and has chaired a governing body through conversion.

This workshop is suitable for governors/directors/trustees and senior leaders from maintained schools and single academy trusts. The workshop provides insight and information on the options, opportunities and process around joining or forming a multi-academy trust (MAT) and what governing bodies should consider in making a decision.

At the end of the workshop, delegates will understand:

- Government policy and where MATs fit within it
- How MATs are structured, including governance
- Characteristics of effective MATs
- What options schools/academies have
- How to go about joining or forming a MAT
- How others have successfully navigated the journey

Other workshops for Governors are available, including Governing Body Panels, Inspection Dashboard, Pupil Premium, Safeguarding, Effective Governance, Ofsted Preparation, Holding School Leaders to Account, SEND, Effective Financial Governance

The Professional Clerks Development Programme and Safer Recruitment workshops are also available, please contact us for further information.
